

Fox Nut Heritage

A Legacy of Indian Fox Nuts

India is the world's leading producer of Fox Nuts, with the fertile wetlands of Bihar recognized globally for producing premium-quality Fox Nuts. Traditionally consumed for centuries in Indian cuisine and wellness practices, Fox Nuts have gained international recognition as a nutritious, gluten-free, plant-based superfood.

Today, Fox Nuts are widely used across healthy snacking, food processing, nutrition products, and wellness industries, making India a trusted source for export-grade Fox Nuts.

At Andromage Global LLP, we connect global buyers with premium-quality Fox Nuts sourced through trusted supply networks and export-focused quality standards.
